

Iain Rennie is Chief Executive of Glasgow Business Services Limited who are responsible for delivering a wide range of Business Gateway services on behalf of Scottish Enterprise. He has worked in this role for 4 years having previously worked in the private sector in a variety of management and executive positions, most recently in the telecommunications industry for a large multi-national organisation. Iain is also a board member of Business Enterprise Scotland.